

FILMMAKER KEN BURNS TO SPEAK AT BROOKDALE

LINCROFT – Ken Burns, the 15-time Emmy Award-winning documentarian, will visit Brookdale Community College on Oct. 27 for a discussion of his past and future projects, including his upcoming film series, “The Vietnam War.”

A two-time Academy Award nominee, Burns received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences in 2008 for his nearly 40-year career as a documentary filmmaker.

Burns, whose works include “The Civil War” and “Baseball,” is regarded by critics and historians as one of the most influential documentarians of the last four decades, said Brookdale history professor Jess LeVine.

The program will begin at noon in Brookdale’s Collins Arena. Tickets are $10 for community members and $5 for students with a valid school or college ID. Free tickets are available for current Brookdale students with a valid ID. Advance tickets are required.
